Dear Diann,

Thank you for your recent advice that I had been selected as the 3rd place Bronze winner of the inaugural 2010 Centre for Leadership for Women (CLW) national Advancement of Women in the Workplace Award. I received the AWWA certificate, your letter and prize money today.

I am very thrilled and honoured to have been selected, and extremely appreciative of the public recognition for my efforts that this Award provides. I am attending a Navy International Women's Day event in Sydney on Monday 8 March 2010 and have been asked to speak about CLW and this Award. I am looking forward to sharing my experience and honour in receiving this Award with the younger Navy women attending.

Your recognition of my achievements with the Navy Women's Leadership Program and of my leadership to advance women in the Royal Australian Navy has garnered further support from Navy's most senior officers for our continued efforts in the recruitment and retention of Navy Women.

Again, thank you for this wonderful honour and I will be very pleased to remain involved with the CLW.

Yours sincerely,

J.A. WITTWER
